

HORROR STUDIES

Series from the University of Wales Press

Series Editor: Dr Xavier Aldana Reyes, Manchester Metropolitan University

Horror Studies is the first book series exclusively dedicated to the study of the genre in its various manifestations – from fiction to cinema and television, magazines to comics, and extending to other forms of narrative texts such as video games and music. Horror Studies raises the profile of Horror, furthering its academic institutionalisation by providing a publishing home for cutting-edge research. As an exciting direction within the established Cultural Studies and Literary Criticism programme, Horror Studies expands the field in innovative and student-friendly ways.

EMBODYING CONTAGION THE VIROPOLITICS OF HORROR AND DESIRE IN CONTEMPORARY DISCOURSE

Edited by Sandra Becker,
Megen de Bruin-Molè and Sara Polak

April 2021 • 9781786836908
£45 • PB

Contemporary contagion narratives can tell us a lot about how a society will respond in a crisis. Embodying Contagion helps us understand these narratives, exploring how we can make more ethical decisions in today's networked world.

TRANSNATIONALISM AND GENRE HYBRIDITY IN NEW BRITISH HORROR CINEMA

Lindsey Decker

March 2021 • 9781786836984
£45 • PB

This book takes British horror films of the 2000s as a case study to theorise transnational genre hybridity, which combines genres from different national cinemas.

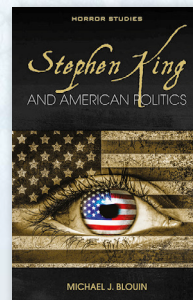

GLOBAL TV HORROR

Edited by Stacey Abbott and Lorna Jowett

March 2021 • 9781786836946
£45 • PB

In an era fascinated by horror, this book examines some of the most significant global TV horror, from children's television and classic series to contemporary shows taking advantage of streaming and on-demand to reach audiences around the world.

STEPHEN KING AND AMERICAN POLITICS

Michael J. Blouin

January 2021 • 9781786836465
£45 • PB

Stephen King and American Politics examines the complicated political character of King's fiction. From the 1960s to Donald Trump, these works force us question how America got into its current political crisis – and where it might go from here.

NEW BLOOD CRITICAL APPROACHES TO CONTEMPORARY HORROR

Edited by Eddie Falvey, Joe Hickinbottom
and Jonathan Wroot
