CONTEMPORARY FRENCH AND SCANDINAVIAN CRIME FICTION CITIZENSHIP, GENDER AND ETHNICITY

Anne Grydehøj

June 2021

9781786837189 • £65.00 • HB

Through a comparative analysis of twelve literary case studies, this book investigates societal discourses relating to citizenship, class, gender and ethnicity within the structures of the Scandinavian welfare state and French Republican universalism.

CRIME FICTION IN GERMAN DER KRIMI

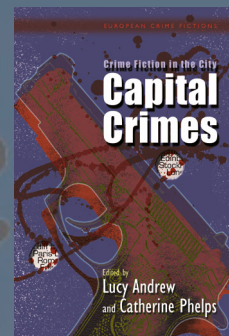

Edited by Katharina Hall

March 2016

9781783168170 • £16.99 • PB

9781783168163 • £75.00 • HB

Crime Fiction in German is the first volume in English to offer a comprehensive overview of German-language crime narratives from the nineteenth century to the new millennium. It introduces readers to crime novels from Germany, Austria, Switzerland and the former East Germany, and examines under-researched areas such as Nazi crime fiction, Turkish-German crime fiction and the Afrika-Krimi.

CRIME FICTION IN THE CITY CAPITAL CRIMES

Edited by Lucy Andrew and Catherine Phelps

April 2013

9780708325865 • £30.00 • HB

Crime Fiction in the City: Capital Crimes reflects on the treatment of the capital city, a repository of authority, national identity and culture, within crime fiction, taking in traditional centres of power – Paris, Rome and London; Europe's most northern capital, Stockholm; and the devolved capitals, Dublin, Edinburgh and Cardiff. The collection opens with a reflective essay by Ian Rankin.

ITALIAN CRIME FICTION

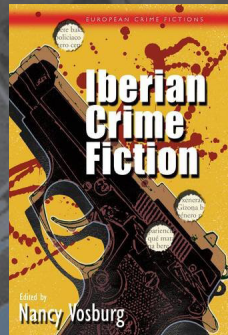

Edited by Giuliana Pieri

October 2011

9780708324318 • £50.00 • HB

9780708324325 • £24.99 • PB

Italian Crime Fiction is the first study in the English language to focus specifically on Italian detective and noir fiction from the 1930s to the present, including writers of international reputation such as Umberto Eco and the new generation, the Bologna School and Women's Crime writers.

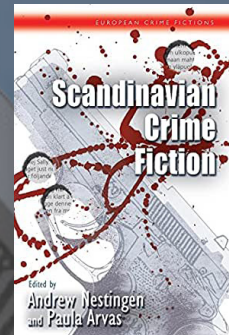

IBERIAN CRIME FICTION

Edited by Nancy Vosburg

February 2011

9780708323328 • £20.00 • HB

Iberian Crime Fiction traces the origins and development of crime fiction in Spain and Portugal. From its rise in popularity in the 1950s, it covers the major authors to the 1980s, Manuel Vázquez Montalbán and the development of the novela negra tradition, women's writing, crime fiction from the periphery (Cataluña, País Vasco y Galicia), and current trends.

SCANDINAVIAN CRIME FICTION

Edited by Andrew Nestingen and Paula Arvas

January 2011

9780708323304 • £19.99 • PB

Scandinavian Crime Fiction is the first English-language study of the widely read crime novels of Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden. Themes explored include the changing crime genre, the role of place and locale in Scandinavian crime fiction, and political and social debates in which crime fiction has participated.
